Vacancy: Regulatory Officer

Experience: up to 3 years

Location: Brussels

About Specialised Nutrition Europe (SNE)

Specialised Nutrition Europe (SNE) is the voice of the specialised nutrition industry in Europe. Specialised nutrition is tailored-made dietary solutions for populations with very specific nutritional needs. These include infants and young children, patients under medical supervision, sportspeople, overweight and obese consumers, and those suffering from coeliac disease. With 19 national associations as members across Europe, a Brussels-based team and a network of top-notch experts, SNE interacts with stakeholders across Europe and beyond.

Position

The Regulatory officer will:

- monitor and report on relevant regulatory developments;
- coordinate certain SNE working groups;
- collect input and data from the SNE membership;
- draft position papers, consultation responses and other resources;
- advise on advocacy approaches;
- provide some administrative support (for example organizing meetings).

Profile

- Completed higher education in a relevant field (European studies, political science, law, food or nutrition related studies);
- Previous work experience of probably 1-3 years in EU affairs, preferably with some knowledge of food related policies and regulation;
- Advanced knowledge of the functioning of the European institutions;
- Strong drafting skills and an excellent command of English; other languages are a plus;
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to engage with a variety of external stakeholders;
- Capacity to quickly understand technical content and relay it to different target groups;
- Keen interest in nutrition and health policies as well as European affairs;
- Independent work style, service-minded, ability to multi-task and attention to detail;
- Advanced end user IT skills.

Offer

- One-year full time contract to start with;
- Opportunity to work in a respected European trade association in a highly dynamic and multicultural environment;
- A varied role with the opportunity to take on more responsibility over time;
- An attractive early career salary commensurate with the qualifications and skills of the successful candidate;
- Position based in Brussels with the option for some home working.

Application

Candidates are invited to submit their CV and motivation letter to b.spath@specialisednutritioneurope.eu with the title "Application Regulatory Officer + your name".
